Virtual event

Empowering Indigenous and Local Community Youth for a Sustainable World

11 August 2023, 18:00-20:00 ICT (Bangkok), Zoom

Note: We encourage participants to sign in 15 minutes before the event begins. Closer to the start of the event, the organisers will send a link to everyone who has signed up.

About the event

The event brings indigenous and local community youth together to celebrate International Youth Day. It will:

• Leverage perspectives by indigenous and local community youth groups on the global themes of both occasions, with a particular focus on land rights and governance.
• Introduce the Youth Mapping Report, highlighting its key messages and recommendations.
• Provide a space for Asian indigenous and local community youth groups to connect with their peers from various parts of the region.
• Promote solidarity and raise awareness among youth worldwide about the work of youth in indigenous and local communities in Asia.
• Highlight the impactful work of Asian indigenous and local community youth to a broader audience, including civil society, donor institutions and policymakers.

Photography

Photographs and video recordings will be taken during the event for documentation and knowledge management purposes. RECOFTC may use these photographs on its website and social media platforms for non-commercial purposes. If you do not consent to have your photograph taken, kindly inform the organizers before the event begins.
